

Peregrine Press Special Delivery

Hello everyone!

Hope all of you are well and enjoying your summer. It has been a busy one for us and seems to be going by like a fast-moving passenger train in Japan. Where does the time go?

We wanted to get you up to speed on upcoming events that you can participate in, if your schedule allows. See all that is happening below.

First Friday in September - September 3rd

This event goes from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm in Oxford. Street Vendors, Food Trucks, the streets will be blocked off in the downtown area for cars to be displayed. Come and join the fun in the cool of the evening and see some really nice cars from this area.

The 7th Annual Downtown Oxford Car Show

Whether you're into classic cars or the latest and greatest, they'll be something for everyone!

We'll be featuring food trucks, music, and your favorite merchants.

NEW THIS YEAR: Visiting Artists Robert and Carol Postupak featuring their automotive artwork.

Big News! We will have Chris Rankin and his car Relic will be at the Oxford Car Show. Chris and Relic have been seen on the Discovery Channel show Street Outlaws and we are excited to have him join us! Also, we'll feature autograph signing by by 2013 ISMA Champion "Liquid" Lou Cicconi.

Thank you to our generous sponsors for bringing this event to life: Oxford Area Foundation, Oxford Feed and Lumber, Country Chrysler, Herr's, KVIS and COE, Wawa, Brittany Lovio State Farm, SERVPro of Kennett Square/Oxford, and WKM Accountants.

Just wanted to update you on plans for the “Return to Gettysburg” gathering that is currently scheduled for Wednesday, September 8th, 2021. If it rains, the whole event will be cancelled and not rescheduled.

If in doubt, call Pat or Ken, or check Mason-Dixon Falcon Facebook page.

We have planned this activity for September 8th, in order to obtain the best rate for rooms at the Sleep Inn in Emmitsburg. The Sleep Inn has graciously agreed to honor the discounted rate of $95.00 per night for the Mason-Dixon group for September 7th and 8th. Their normal rate for September stays is $180.00 per night, so this is a tremendous offer from them to our group! Please call the front desk at 301-447-0044 to make your reservation, mention Mason/Dixon to get the discounted rate.

You are able to cancel your reservations up to 4:00 PM on the day of arrival. This is a great opportunity for us and we are very thankful to the Sleep Inn management for their willingness to do business with us.

This is NOT a Regional Show. There will be NO trophies, no awards, no free meals. There may be some ice cream, but no big banquets. We are opening this event also to members of the Keystone Chapter and the Virginia Chapter as well as anyone from other areas who may want to just get away to Gettysburg for a few days. September is a most pleasant time of the year for being outdoors in central Pennsylvania, and especially the Gettysburg area.

The plan is to leave Sleep Inn at 10AM, on September 8th and drive through the countryside which includes a ride through a covered bridge. We will then proceed to the Battlefield and visit the North Carolina and the Virginia Monuments which we did not have time to visit previously. We will then proceed to General Longstreet’s monument/Amphitheater for a light lunch (which you will need to provide). There are restrooms (port a pots) at this location. After this break we will continue on to see other Gettysburg sights we missed the last time. The cruise will end at Appalachian Brewing Company for dinner. After returning to the Sleep Inn, Mason/Dixon will provide ice cream sandwiches.

And there will be music! Violinist Cindy Dapore will be joining us for an encore performance!

The Mason Dixon Fall picnic will be Saturday, October 23rd at Pat and Diane Varricchio’s home in Nottingham, MD.

This article below comes to us by way of Mike Garrett. Thanks, Mike, for bringing this to our attention!

Reminder: The perils of neglecting your classic

We had some extra money last month, so we voted on what to do with it. She voted “save it”. I voted “buy a new Falcon”. It was 1-1 until overnight when 139,000 votes came in for a new Falcon. My wife is suspicious.

The Mason Dixon Spring Picnic was held on Saturday, May 8th. It was great to be together, after the long Covid lock-up...I mean lock-down. ☺ It was a cold, rainy day, so not too many ventured out with their Falcons. However, we did have a special visitor. This Peregrine falcon was spotted on the fence rail in Varricchio's yard. I guess it heard about our Falcon meeting and didn't want to miss the fun! As always, a good time was had by all. Good food, lots of laughter, and "exchanging of the stuff" auction. For those who couldn't make it, here are some pics of what you missed.

Naomi Henderson's handiwork! A beautiful work of art and keepsake for Tom Lauppe, honoring his years of service in the Air Force and Delaware Air National Guard. Thank you, Tom, for your dedication and service to our country!

Peanuts 1962 Ford Falcon Commercials Are Delightful

If you're old enough to remember car commercials from 1962 broadcast television, then you know times were fundamentally different back then. This is potently illustrated by the Charles Schulz's Peanuts characters starring in an ad campaign for the 1962 Ford Falcon line. They're delightfully fun, low-key commercials the likes of which we would never see run today. Click the link below to see full article. There's even a video of a commercial that ran.
